

Saved from what?

RC Sproul gets to explain the concept of salvation using 3 questions

- Saved from what?
- Saved by what?
- Saved for what?

Through these questions answered in sections in the book, I have a clearer of the basics of the Christian message.

Even as I participate in the weekly evangelism classes, mainly Two Ways to Live, the importance of not assuming salvation, but rather people's salvation. Knowing their is salvation is not enough. These guiding questions by RC Sproul would form a good basis of conversation ultimately to knowing their salvation, maybe assuring their salvation and to the unsaved sharing the Gospel message correctly.

I took 2 copies of the book to read with a friend I am reaching out to, he hasn't finished it yet but I have the hope it'll spur further Gospel conversations when time comes.
